RE: 2018 Financial Statements and Form 990

We are delighted you are seeking to understand more about Children's HopeChest financial position. Integrity, transparency and trust are core values of our non-profit and a significant proportion of those key values are displayed, demonstrated and earned through the responsible stewarding of the resources God provides to the organization.

Please note that prior to 2018, HopeChest consolidated financials of operating entities in Russia, Uganda and Guatemala. Our 2018 financial reports and filings reflect a major effort to streamline and simplify our accounting practices. The HopeChest Board of Directors approved the 2018 deconsolidation of the financial reporting of operations in Russia, Uganda and Guatemala given the independent organizational status of each of these entities. Each of these operations have independent legal status as an entity in their respective countries.

Much of the reported deficits for 2018 are due to the granting of property, cash and other assets to these independent entities in the deconsolidation process. The effect of these actions can best be seen on the 2018 Balance Sheet and did not have a material impact on our ability to operate as an organization or in our vision to bring hope to those who need it most.

We are grateful for the many individuals and organizations who partner with us and put their trust in our ability to carry out our mission of glorifying God by releasing the potential of orphaned and impoverished children and their communities through partnerships that cultivate two-way transformation.

If you have any questions, please feel free to reach out to either myself, or Ana Brown, our Controller.

In His grip,
